Earth Day Poster Contest

Flowering For Pollination

The poster contest is open to Bergen County grade school students from the first through eighth grades. All posters must be submitted to Ridgewood Whole Foods or R&S Landscaping by Monday, April 21st with a completed entry form. Entry forms can be obtained at www.rscape.com/contest.html.

First place prize is a pizza party for their entire class. Winners will also have their original artwork displayed at Ridgewood Whole Foods. R&S Landscaping will also post the winning images on R&S Landscaping's website and Facebook page beginning Earth Day – April 22nd – and during the month of May.

The subject of 2014's poster contest is Flowering for Pollination. Flowers are a source of particular beauty in the garden, but they have a particular function in the garden as a critical part of the plant's life cycle. Artwork that includes New Jersey native flowering plants and trees such as Flowering Dogwood, Pink Azalea, and Jack in the Pulpit, will be given special notice.

Artwork may be from 8.5x11 inches to 11x17 inches in size and may be drawn or painted with pencil, crayon, marker, paint, or pastel. Posters must be drawn on a flat surface.
